Making Your High Holiday Experience Meaningful and Safe

We're thrilled to welcome you to our inclusive community as we gather for the High Holidays. To ensure everyone feels empowered and prepared, we've provided the following safety information:

- Situational Awareness: Please review the map below to familiarize yourself with the locations of all exits at the Denver Botanic Gardens.
- Medical Emergencies: If you require assistance, the EMS team, easily identifiable in red shirts, will be stationed just outside the tent.
- Report Concerns: If you notice any suspicious, erratic, or threatening behavior, please report it immediately to JYW staff, police officers, or volunteers in blue vests.

We're committed to creating a safe and supportive environment for all.

Denver Botanic Gardens – Exits Marked with Stars

As a maximally inclusive community, we welcome you however you are to celebrate the High Holidays with us. Attendees who are physically or verbally disruptive to the service will be asked to leave the Denver Botanic Gardens immediately.

WELCOME: YOUR PRESENCE IS A BLESSING

We are so grateful to gather for these High Holidays with you. Whether you're joining us online or in the tent, we hope this time together uplifts your spirit and brings you joy.

At Judaism Your Way, we create an open tent for anyone seeking Jewish connection. Whether this is your first time or your 1,000th time in Jewish space, we welcome you exactly as you are, with love and no judgment. We invite you to drop your shoulders, open your heart, take a deep breath, and simply be.

Rosh Hashanah celebrates the ongoing creation of the world. May these services help us to commit to healing that unfolding – personally, nationally, globally. Yom Kippur invites us to practice the healing power of teshuvah – returning to our integrity, and recommitting to what is most meaningful and true in our lives.

Many of us struggle with a dominant metaphor of the Sacred: God as a big powerful man. Fortunately, Judaism offers a colorful palette of alternative metaphors for the Sacred: Place, Presence, Voice, Fire, Cloud, Water, Rock, Oneness, Wholeness, and Love. You'll encounter these metaphors throughout our services, and we hope you find a metaphor that spiritually moves you.

If you are new to our community, welcome! Your service leaders will be your guides. Please introduce yourself to the folks around you. Take care of your needs during services. You're welcome to sing as loudly as you want, get up, stretch, move, wander and touch plants.

May these High Holiday services help you connect deeply and offer you joy during these uncertain times. We're glad you're here.

L'shana tovah! Blessings for a sweet new year.

We've made mistakes, We've done bad things
But this is what, the new year brings
A chance to change, A chance to grow
With one first step, Nice and slow

We've used bad words, and hurt our friends
But these mistakes, Are not the end
We do teshuvah, We learn to do good
So we tap our heart, To remind us we should
